

Criteria for an Artist's Statement

Your Artist's Statement should answer the following questions:

- What is your philosophy towards art?
- What themes or concerns intrigue you?
- What media do you work with?
- What special techniques do you use?
- How do you integrate your philosophy, themes, media, and techniques?
- How would you like other people to experience your art? Or what would you like other people to understand about your art?